Foz Rahman

About Foz

Foz Rahman is our resident expert in movement, focusing on fixing imbalances using training and release techniques. With qualifications in sports massage, soft-tissue therapy, osteopathic articulation and tool-assisted treatments, he is well equipped to diagnose problem areas, and train and treat for a pain-free, stronger you. Rahman's background as a competitive weightlifter feeds his respect for joint health and movement as he aims to bring all his clients to a high standard of performance.

Qualifications

- Level 3 personal training
- Level 2 British weightlifting instructor
- Diploma in osteopathic articulation/ ISTM
- Diploma in sports rehab/ sports massage/ advanced soft tissue

Morning routine

'A good source of protein for breakfast, bike ride to work, followed by an Olympic weightlifting HIIT session.'

Top tip for achieving your goals

'I've found many people are capable of the most complex weightlifting techniques, but stress and habits from everyday life prevent good movement in their joints. I mobilise and train towards specific moves until we're ready to progress.'

Elizabeth Stimson

About Elizabeth

Elizabeth Stimson has been practising yoga and meditation for more than 10 years and has a keen interest in health and fitness. Throughout her life, she has trained as a gymnast and believes there is a magical quality to yoga, which helps us work through life's issues. She likes to support students to flow through carefully crafted sequences that work the body hard, but also create space to let the stress of modern life melt away.

Qualifications

- Yoga Alliance accredited
- British Wheel of Yoga certified
- Creative sequencing

Morning routine

'I genuinely love to exercise, so the first thing I do when I get up is work out. It can be anything from HIIT to more toning and strength-based movements. I swear by hot water and lemon every morning. I have that followed by two breakfasts.'

Top tip for achieving your goals

'Commitment. It's not very exciting, but if you really want to achieve something – whether it's in fitness, yoga or life – you have to dedicate your time to it. Hard work beats natural talent. Picasso said: "Inspiration exists, but it has to find you working".'

PT price and package: 30 minutes £45 | 60 minutes £70 | 4 x 60 minutes £260 | 8 x 60 minutes £500 | 12 x 60 minutes £670
