SOHO HOUSE

NEW YORK

Introduction by Kate Bryan,
Soho House Chief Art Director

Refreshed in 2025, the Soho House New York collection features a strong lineup of museum-level artists who were born, are based or trained in the city including Derrick Adams, Carroll Dunham, Adam Pendleton, Tschabalala Self, Rashid Johnson, Xaviera Simmons, Cassi Namoda, Juliana Huxtable, and Jenny Holzer.

A key work in the collection is 'Dear Art Collector' by the Guerrilla Girls. For 40 years, these anonymous artist activists have been the conscience of the art world, advocating for gender parity and greater inclusivity. This work began life as a poster illegally posted in the meatpacking area in the late 1980s and is now presented in permanent form – a rare treat from these masked avengers.

The collection also includes a younger generation of talent including b. chehayeb, Ficus Interfaith, Maia Cruz Palileo, Coumba Samba, Ammon Rost, and Nasim Hantehzadeh.

The majority of the original monochromatic collection that was curated a decade ago has been reinstalled in a maximalist hang in the Vinyl Room, which features pieces by Richard Prince, Lawrence Weiner, and Mark Bradford.

Dearest Art Collector,
It has come to our attention that your collection, like most,
does not contain
enough art by women.
We know that you feel terrible about this and will rectify the situation immediately.

All our love,
Guerrilla Girls
