HOUSE ART

SHOREDITCH HOUSE
EAST LONDON

Introduction by Kate Bryan,
Soho House Chief Art Director

Upon entering Shoreditch House visitors have long been greeted by a commissioned work reading “no suits” by Damien Hirst. In 2025, new works were added to the reception including a large work by Yinka Shonibare, whose studio is close by. The art refresh extended to the entire 5th floor, which includes a solo presentation in the Library of over 20 works by the young artist Billy Bagihole.

Opposite the club bar is a focussed selection honouring some of the icons of the East End art scene including Gilbert & George, Sue Webster, Yinka Shonibare, Langlands and Bell, Ryan Gander, Rachel Whiteread and Tracey Emin. Other key acquisitions include a suite of works on paper from another longtime east end artist, Chila Burman Singh, a large tapestry from Chila’s studio neighbour Charlotte Edey and a watercolour by Gavin Turk.

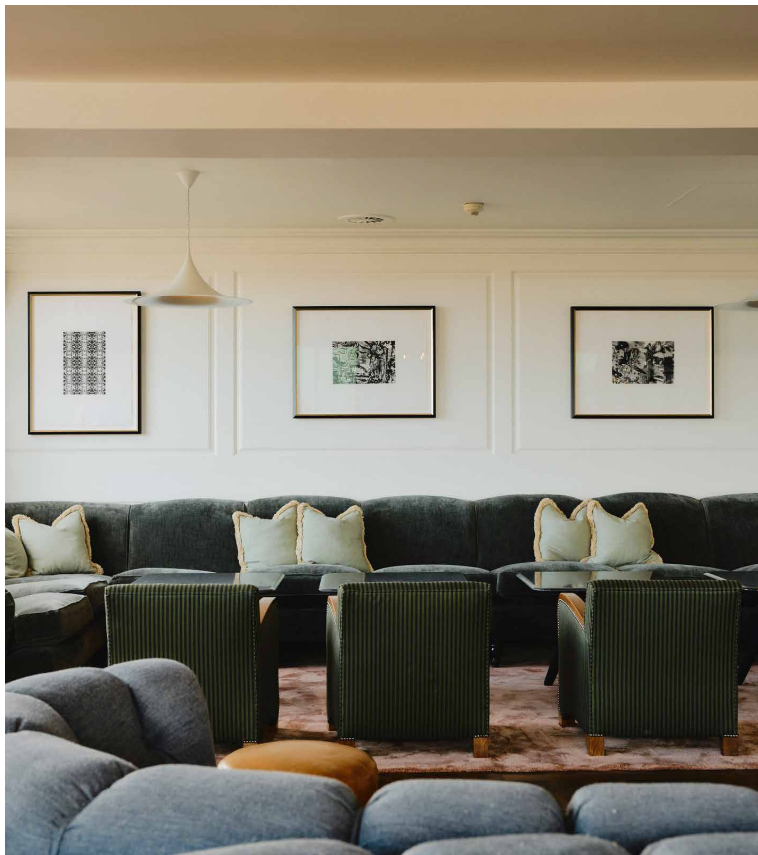

Many of the existing works that date from Shoreditch’s original black and white art collection, curated by Francesca Gavin, have found new locations in the restaurant and sitting room so members can look out for their old favourites such as a pair by Oscar Murillo and a glass work by the duo Levack and Lewandowski.

In 2023 the back deck of the 6th floor was curated with a multi-generational line up of artists whose work centres on identity, representation and new modes of thinking about beauty, including Matthias Garcia, Joy Labinjo, Sola Olulode, Hester Finch and Leon Pozniakow.
