Introduction by Sara Terzi

Soho House Senior Art Collections Manager

The Soho House Copenhagen art collection is comprised of 38 artists born, based or trained in Denmark. Throughout the collection, emerging talents and museum-level artists alike provide an insight into the contemporary Danish art scene. Taking inspiration from the building's window gallery, the artworks are presented under alternating spotlights, creating a contrast between the outside and inside view.

Highlights from the collection include: 'Ganymede (Jockstrap)' by Elmgreen & Dragset, a work centred around the sculptural practice of Danish neo-classicist artist Bertel Thorvaldsen, in which the artistic duo brings to life iconic sculptures by dressing them in various articles of clothing that accentuates their nudity; 'Gynophobia' by Lilibeth Cuenca Rasmussen, a photographic piece based on a performance that explored the perceived figure of womanhood in society; and 'Hand to Mouth' – a painting by Farshad Farzankia where a vivid palette marries a spare iconography inspired by the language of Neo-Expressionism.

SOHO VISIONARIES

POWERED BY PORSCHE

The Soho Visionaries series, powered by Porsche, amplifies the voices of local artists and members who are driving culture forward. Together, Soho House and Porsche have commissioned site-specific works that visually embrace the Porsche ethos of bringing dreams to life.

The series is supported by events that celebrate Soho House’s creative community, and inspire imagination through art workshops, talks and immersive experiences around the world.

‘Working across painting, photography and sculpture, the three artists selected for Soho Visionaries may have distinct practices, but they all share a commitment to rethinking the world around us. At heart they are storytellers, and the works they have created as part of this initiative with Porsche will be permanent reminders that art allows us to dream and see beyond the expected. Look out for more commissions coming to our Houses soon.’
