SHOREDITCH HOUSE
EAST LONDON

Introduction by Kate Bryan,
Soho House Global Director of Art

Shoreditch House was originally curated in 2007 by Francesca Gavin and includes a large number of small monochromatic artworks in a salon style that reflected the burgeoning east London art scene. Established artists include Cornelia Parker, Gerith Wyn Evans, Damien Hirst, Fiona Banner, Juergen Teller, Keith Coventry, Michael Landy, Oscar Murillo, Mike Nelson, Phyllida Barlow, Hurvin Anderson, Prem Sahib, Rachel Whiteread and Toby Ziegler.

Between 2021 and 2023 new pieces were added throughout the House to incorporate a new generation of artists alongside the original collection. Two large vibrant paintings by Mary Ramsden and Dawn Beckles changed the energy of the reception, which still boasts the iconic 'No Suits' piece by Damien Hirst.

Marianne Hendricks created a suite of paintings with an intense natural focus in the fifth floor corridor. Meanwhile, the largest painting in the site is a poetic figurative work by Nick Jensen. The Back Deck was curated most recently with a multi-generational installation of artists whose work centres on identity, representation and new modes of thinking about beauty, including Matthias Garcia, Joy Labinjo, Sola Olulode, Hester Finch, Leon Pozniakow, Nwando Ebizie, Sunil Gupta, Phoebe Collings-James and Yinka Shonibare. The collection now numbers more than 120 artists.

SOHO VISIONARIES

'Working across painting, photography and sculpture, the three artists selected for Soho Visionaries may have distinct practices, but they all share a commitment to rethinking the world around us. At heart they are storytellers, and the works they have created as part of this initiative will be permanent reminders that art allows us to see beyond the expected.'

The Soho Visionaries series, powered by Porsche, amplified the voices of three local artists and members who are driving culture forward. Together, Soho House and Porsche commissioned new site-specific works displayed at Soho Farmhouse, Soho House Barcelona and Soho House Berlin. The series is supported by events that celebrate Soho House's creative community, and allow members to participate in art workshops and talks around the world.
