House West Hollywood

Introduction by Kate Bryan, Global Art Director of Soho House

The art collection at West Hollywood was refreshed entirely in early 2023 to reflect only artists born, based and trained in Los Angeles. Moving away from the historic monochromatic collection which was formed of an international line up when the House originally opened, the new collection is testament to the incredibly strong art scene that has developed in the city over the past decade. The only artwork which remains and breaks the local artist rule is a piece beloved by members which has become an important part of the House's identity, the painting deploying a typically British deadpan humour by Harland Miller.

Key works in the new hang include established figures of the historic Californian art scene including Ed Ruscha, Ed Kienholz, Judy Chicago and the late artists John Baldassari and Billy Al Bengston.

Works by a younger generation of museum level talent include original works by Hebru Brantley, Parker Ito, Todd Grant, Alexandra Grant, David Horvitz, Hilary Pecis, José Parlá, Muna Malik and Walead Beshty. Other key new works include Athier Mousawi, Farrah Karapetian, Lila de Magalhaes, Marta Klara, Samantha Thomas, Manuel López and Tidawhitney Lek.
