

SOHO HOUSE AUSTIN

SOHO HOUSE
ART COLLECTION

Introduction by Kate Bryan, Global Art Director of Soho House

The Austin art collection comprises of 72 artists born, based or trained in Texas with nearly 60% specific to Austin. From museum levels names such as Deborah Roberts to emerging talent such as Tsz Kam, the collection responds to the creative spirit of the city.

A 35 foot wall on the third floor features a curated selection entitled Break The Mould. Every piece resists the traditional format of wall-based work: square or rectangular framed work are conspicuously absent. A large percentage are textile-based work such as Michael Anthony Garcia's embroidered baby blanket seemingly installed with pencils pierced into the wall. Other pieces purposefully create disruption by painting illusionary frames like Frances Fuchs or Daniel Rios Rodriguez's jagged painted edges.

The other large salon hang on the ground floor pre-screening room includes 12 artists in the first decade of their career including Gabi Magaly, Jennifer Ling Datchuk, Adrian Armstrong, Taylor Barnes, Natalia Rocafuerte and Annie Arnold. Outside the cinema is a key work by Austin duo Teresa Hubbard / Alexander Birchler which directly references the history of Texan cinema. The events room includes a strong line-up of small sculptural work including pieces by The Haas Brothers, Cheyenne Weaver, Tammie Rubin, Sterling Allen, Jeff Williams, Madeline Donahue and Ron Geibel.

The hotel rooms feature commissions created by Eileen Wu, Michael Anthony Garcia and Xochi Solis. The site has two specially commissioned murals: Desireé Vaniécia created an image of black female divinity on the rooftop and Hayley Mitchell created an ethereal design connecting the entire interior staircase. The collection was curated in 2020 by Global Director of Art for Soho House Kate Bryan and Senior Art Collection Manager Sara Terzi.
