SOHO HOUSE
ART COLLECTION

Artworks by Chris Levine
in Soho House White City

Introduction by Kate Bryan,
Global Art Director of Soho House

The White City House art collection was curated in 2018 and consists of works selected solely in response to the site's esteemed broadcasting history. Specially commissioned pieces include Archie Proudfoot's 'Test Card Girl' and 'Matter of Time', Chris Levine's take on the iconic BBC Playschool windows, and the first light-based work in the Soho House collection, as well as works by George Henry Longly, Nathan Coley, Mary McCartney and Ben Kustow that reference the BBC. Peter Blake created a series of editions in his signature collage style pay homage to television centre stars and are displayed in the reception and also in every bedroom. Other key works include a diptych by Julian Rosefeldt that references soap operas, a site specific painting installed in a niche by Claudia Comte and an artist rug influenced by the test card by Lucy Gough.

Dear Tony Hart on display in the 8th floor events space honours the TV presenter Tony Hart (1925-2009) who inspired many generations throughout his 50-year broadcasting history, with all new work by David Shrigley, Fiona Banner, Gavin Turk, Gillian Wearing, Jeremy Deller, Joanna Kirk, Julie Verhoeven, Keith Tyson, Mark Wallinger, Mat Collishaw, Michael Landy, Nathan Coley, Polly Morgan, Prem Sahib, Rachel Howard, Ruth Ewan, Ryan Gander, Sue Webster and Thomas Heatherwick. Hart's programmes, Vision On, Take Hart and Hart Beat encouraged children to send in their artwork for selection and display on television, the artwork was never returned but successful young artists would receive a book token in payment of their submission.

In 2021 Alice Browne was invited to complete a mural in situ on the large mirrored dining area on the 9th floor.
