SOHO WORKS

WHITE CITY

About Soho Works

Soho Works is an international network of workspaces by Soho House, designed and equipped to help creative thinkers and businesses connect, collaborate, and grow.

Our spaces combine the 'home away from home' feeling of our Houses with all the tools, technology and equipment to help you do your best work.

Each workspace offers meeting rooms, flexible private hire options and a curated programme of member events to help you and your business grow.

Open now in 180 Strand, Dean Street, White City and Shoreditch

Prices are available upon request.

White City

Set next to White City House, in the historical Television Centre, our 30,000 sq ft workspace has multiple meeting rooms, podcast recording equipment, phone booths, and a fully equipped kitchen, plus private office for teams of all sizes.

2 Television Centre, London, W12 7FR
