

A photograph of a woman's back and hair, rendered in a style that combines realistic photography with bold, black, hand-drawn line art. The woman has long, wavy, light brown hair. The line art consists of thick, expressive black strokes that define the contours of her back, shoulders, and hair, creating a graphic, almost abstract effect. The background is a solid, warm beige color.

Introduction by Kate Bryan, Soho House Chief Art Director

The permanent Soho House Amsterdam art collection was curated site specifically between 2017 and 2018. It acknowledges the weighty history of Dutch art, including a self-portrait collection in the main club space, which is an homage to Rembrandt and Van Gogh, two of the greatest self-portraitists of all time. The display features pieces by Fiona Tan, Marcelle Hanselaar, Billy Childish, Catherine Opie, Ming Wong, Clare Woods, and Lisa Brice.

In the Blue Room is another contemporary collection, which references the great golden age of Dutch landscape oil painters with works by established artists such as Tacita Dean and Charlotte Prodger, alongside more emerging names like Sanja Marušić and Rui Matsunaga.

On the ground floor in Cecconi's, the selection of work all draws inspiration from Dutch still lifes and Vanitas paintings, including pieces by Fleur van Dodewaard, Zoë Buckman, Mat Collishaw, Addie Wagenknecht, Gordon Cheung, Ina van Zyl, Manon Wertenbroek, and Wouter Venema.

As well as the Dutch artists featured in these international thematic collections, the House also displays art by a large number of other local artists, such as museum-level figures like Drift, Esther Tielemans and Amie Dicke.

SOHO VISIONARIES

POWERED BY PORSCHE

The Soho Visionaries series, powered by Porsche, amplifies the voices of local artists and members who are driving culture forward. Together, Soho House and Porsche have commissioned site-specific works that visually embrace the Porsche ethos of bringing dreams to life.

The series is supported by events that celebrate Soho House's creative community, and inspire imagination through art workshops, talks and immersive experiences around the world.

'Working across painting, photography and sculpture, the three artists selected for Soho Visionaries may have distinct practices, but they all share a commitment to rethinking the world around us. At heart they are storytellers, and the works they have created as part of this initiative with Porsche will be permanent reminders that art allows us to dream and see beyond the expected. Look out for more commissions coming to our Houses soon.'
