HOUSE ART

WHITE CITY HOUSE

WEST LONDON

Introduction by Kate Bryan,
Soho House Chief Art Director

The White City House art collection was curated in 2018 and consists of works selected solely in response to the site's esteemed broadcasting history as the former home of BBC Television and the location's influence on British modernism. Specially commissioned pieces include Archie Proudfoot's 'Test Card Girl', Chris Levine's take on the iconic BBC Play School windows, which is the first light-based work in the Soho House collection, as well as art by George Henry Longly, Nathan Coley, Mary McCartney and Ben Kustow that reference the BBC. Peter Blake created a series of editions in his signature collage style, which pay homage to Television Centre stars and are displayed in the reception, plus every bedroom. Other key works include a diptych by German artist Julian Rosefeldt that references soap operas, a site-specific painting installed in a niche by Claudia Comte, an artist rug influenced by the BBC test card by Lucy Gough, and a work about power and media by Mandy El-Sayegh.

'Dear Tony Hart' on display in the eighth floor honours the late children's art TV presenter, who inspired many generations throughout his 50-year broadcasting history, with all new work by David Shrigley, Fiona Banner, Gavin Turk, Gillian Wearing, Jeremy Deller, Joanna Kirk, Julie Verhoeven, Keith Tyson, Mark Wallinger, Mat Collishaw, Michael Landy, Nathan Coley, Polly Morgan, Prem Sahib, Rachel Howard, Ruth Ewan, Ryan Gander, Sue Webster, and Thomas Heatherwick.

The screening room lobby features a selection of works that are cinematic in tone, including art by Rosa-Johan Uddoh, Nina Mae Fowler, and Mary Reid Kelley and Patrick Kelley. In 2022, Alice Browne was invited to complete a mural in situ on the large mirrored dining area on the ninth floor, and a new selection of artists were added on the eighth floor with figurative work by David Lock, Liorah Tchiprout and Larry Amponsah.

SOHO VISIONARIES

'Working across painting, photography and sculpture, the three artists selected for Soho Visionaries may have distinct practices, but they all share a commitment to rethinking the world around us. At heart they are storytellers, and the works they have created as part of this initiative will be permanent reminders that art allows us to see beyond the expected.'

The Soho Visionaries series, powered by Porsche, amplified the voices of three local artists and members who are driving culture forward. Together, Soho House and Porsche commissioned new site-specific works displayed at Soho Farmhouse, Soho House Barcelona and Soho House Berlin. The series is supported by events that celebrate Soho House's creative community, and allow members to participate in art workshops and talks around the world.
