

SOHO HOUSE MEXICO CITY

SOHO HOUSE
ART COLLECTION

Introduction by Anakena Paddon,

Art Collection Manager

As the first House in Latin America, it was particularly important to highlight the vibrant and renowned art scene of Mexico City. The result is one of our most ambitious collections to date, combining the breathtaking architecture of the site with the strength of the local art scene.

In close collaboration with some of Mexico City's most established galleries (Kurimanzutto and OMR to name a few) and more emerging spaces (such as Peana, Campeche and Salon Silicon), the collection brought together over 160 artworks by artists with strong ties to the Mexican capital. The variety in mediums (embroidery, painting, glass, photography, ceramic, textile, sculpture, collage and more) only serves to highlight the electric diversity of the city's creative scene.

Being able to play with the scale of the space allowed for the presentation of museum-level artworks in impactful ways, such as the Restaurant featuring three stand-out pieces (Abraham Cruzvillegas, Zhivago Duncan and Ana Segovia); the Annex with Sofía Táboas' monumental glass installation; and Yeni Mao's custom hanging sculpture in the Pool House.

One of our most immersive site-specific pieces ever produced is the floor-to-ceiling textile installation created by the artist duo Cuerpo Celeste (known individually as Gabriel Rosas Alemán and María Fernanda Camarena). It wraps across all four walls of the reception, creating an immediately warm and tender environment, and signaling to members from their very first entrance that the space is dedicated to artists.

The collection was curated in 2023 by Chief Art Director for Soho House Kate Bryan and Art Collection Manager Anakena Paddon.
