SOHO BEACH HOUSE
MIAMI

Introduction by Kate Bryan,
Soho House Chief Art Director

The art collection at Soho Beach House was refreshed in late 2025 with a curatorial focus on photography. This permanent collection presents an international line-up of artists exploring the power and versatility of photography as an art medium.

This global photographic showcase brings together established names with emerging voices from around the world, reflecting the cutting-edge spirit of Miami and its role as an international arts hub each year during Art Basel Miami Beach. The collection comprises of artists already represented in 32 Soho Houses globally – from Amsterdam to Tokyo, West Hollywood to Mumbai and beyond.

Key works include those by museum-level names Isaac Julien, JR, Laurie Simmons, Marilyn Minter, Walead Beshty, Ming Smith, Miguel Calderón, Hank Willis Thomas, Rene Matić, Dayanita Singh, Thomas Dozol, and Douglas Gordon. They are joined by emerging stars of the Soho House collection, including Sarah Maple, Cornelius Tulloch, Anna Carey, and Marcus Maddox.

Taken as a whole, the collection explores the boundaries of photography with artists working with polaroid, performance-based imagery, collage, cameraless photography, solarisation, digital manipulation, hand-printed works, lenticular, fabric, and wood-based prints.
